"Most of the employees we have today are Islanders. We have enjoyed great success with the team we have here." – Jeff Poirier, President, Vector Aerospace - Engine Services Atlantic

Join thriving companies like Vector Aerospace, Honeywell, Testori Americas, MDS Coating Technologies, and Tronosjet Maintenance at Slemon Park, the centerpiece of Prince Edward Island's aerospace industry.

Slemon Park offers everything your aerospace business needs and expects:

- Extensive hangar facilities and commercial space
- Competitive lease rates and low operational costs
- A reliable and dedicated workforce, trained locally at Holland College Summerside
- Private Transport Canada-registered full-service airport with 8000 x 200 foot runway
- Professional property-management team
- Strategically located in Atlantic Canada with competitive access to both North American and European markets

And here's another inviting feature: the Province of Prince Edward Island's Aerospace Tax Rebate, which includes a full annual rebate of provincial income and property taxes to qualified companies.
